Keep one piece of work in view

Use this page, your own document, or Post-it notes. You will return to the same assignment, project, question, or job task in each section.

My selected work and its current status

1. Fluency: choose a next learning move

What have I already done or attempted?

What do I want to understand, compare, or practice next?

What first action can I take with the time and access I have?

A bridge can be an investigation, comparison, revision, or small implementation. You do not need to reproduce the scale or private data of an employer.

Explain and review the same work

My selected work: _____

2. Legibility: write your project explanation

What problem or question? What approach and contribution? What result, current progress, or plan, and what does it mean?

3. Reach: introduce one part of the work

Who might have a genuine reason to discuss it? Write two opening sentences for that situation. Nothing needs to be sent today.

4. Reader feedback and revision

I understand ... / I am still looking for ...

One choice I explained without the template, and one revision I made:

My next action and where I saved the actual work:
